KILLED BY A BOARKai Chong, Chinese Taro Planter, Bleeds to Death.Enraged Animal Makes Fatal
Wounds—Lassoed and Taken to Rice's Paddock.

About a quarter of a mile above School street on the Ewa side of Liliha at a place called Konowai, Kai Chong, taro planter and hog raiser, was bitten by a boar yesterday forenoon and before medical assistance could be secured, was dead. The story as told by other Chinamen associated with him in work is substantially as follows:

On Monday, Kai Chong borrowed a large black boar from a Japanese and took him to his place forthwith. Sometime during the night, the animal wandered away from the premises up on the land of others. Bright and early, Kai Chong started out in pursuit and shortly afterwards found the boar rooting up the sod under some cocoanut trees on the premises of natives not more than 600 feet removed.

He started to drive the animal back and by dint of poking with a stick must have so irritated him as to cause him to turn.

At all events nothing was known of the matter until cries for help were heard from the direction of the premises of the native already indicated. David Carter went over and there found the Japanese, the owner of the boar. The Chinaman was lying on the ground in a pool of blood and was unable to speak a word. With the help of three Chinese laborers, Carter and the Japanese carried the wounded man to the house where he died inside of a minute's time.

Upon examination it was found that the animal has made four wounds completely through the fleshy part of the leg about a half way up from the knee. Examination of the boar's tusks later explained how easily this could have been done. They were over two inches long.

Upon telephoning to the police station Patrolman Conley went up and offered what assistance he could.

In the meantime the boar was not idle. Running out into an alley and thence to Liliha street, he began chasing people promiscuously, causing great terror in the neighborhood.

As it happened a band of cowboys in charge of a number of polled Angus cattle, on their way to C. Bolte's home, were passing by. Learning of what the enraged animal had done, George Holt threw a lasso, caught and took him to the paddock of W. H. Rice near by, where he was tied to a fence.

It is very probable that the boar will be shot today.

Court Notes

Judge Perry is author of a decision issued out of the Circuit Court yesterday in the case of the Wilder Steamship Company vs. the brig Lurline, libel for salvage. The pleadings in the case are found to justify an award. Wilder & Co. claimed $5,000. The Court thinks this amount inequitable and oppressive, and awards to the libellants as salvage the sum of $2,650, being one-fourth of $10,600, the value of the property saved. The sum of $75 is awarded to Pilot Robert English, and $90 for the six in equal shares. All costs of the proceedings are charged to the Lurline. Kinney & Ballou for libellant; A. S. Hartwell for respondents.

The Supreme Court has affirmed the decree appealed from in Volney V. Ashford vs. Henry Poor and the Hawaiian Government. In the syllabus the Court says: "The Hawaiian Government is not liable for the appointment by the Postmaster General of a clerk in the Postal Savings Bank to make deposits as trustee for the plaintiff, such an appointment not being within the real or apparent scope of the Postmaster General's official duties, and having been ratified by the plaintiff."

"The Hawaiian Government is not liable for the defalcation of a clerk in the Postal Savings Bank, who, as trustee for the plaintiff, makes a regular withdrawal of money, and fails to account therefor to the plaintiff."

Peter High & Co. entered suit yesterday afternoon against E. H. F. Wolter to recover the sum of $2,812.20, alleged to be due for materials furnished and used in the construction of the hotel building at the corner of King and Alakea streets. A notice of lien on said building for the amount claimed was filed with the assumpsit proceedings.

Judge Perry has signed an order allowing the trustees of the estate of the late H. A. P. Carter to pay to the ancillary administrator at Seattle the sum of $18,500, to enable the Seattle National Bank to close out and liquidate, it being the intention of the stockholders to go out of business.

Cannon vs. Poor was argued before the Supreme Court in banco yesterday and submitted.

New Teachers' Association.

MR. EDITOR:—By request of Mr. J. W. Smith, myself and a number of other teachers gathered at Pearl City School house on Saturday, January 30, 1897, for the purpose of organizing a teacher's association.

Mr. J. L. Dumas was called to the chair, and a short program carried out. After some kindergarten songs, Mr. J. W. Smith gave a class drill in primary numbers. Judging from the neat appearance and good behavior of his pupils, I conclude they have received instructions in more than the three R's. Their answers were prompt, and for the most part, correct, thus showing that they had been taught to think.

Mr. J. L. Dumas, acting as instructor, gave us some good advice. An organization was completed, and the last Saturday in each month fixed upon as a time for meeting.

We earnestly hope the teachers of that section will give their best efforts to the work, and that Mr. Smith will not let his enthusiasm abate in the good work begun.

T. P. HARRIS.

TWO SMALL FIRES.One on the Alden Besse the Other on Liliha Street.

A fire in the cook's galley on the bark Alden Besse just shortly after 12 noon yesterday was the occasion for the calling out of the fire department and the gathering of a large crowd on Brewer's wharf where the vessel in question lies.

The crew were getting ready to tar the decks and a pot of the necessary article was placed on the stove to be heated. This was done effectually and some of the tar boiled over the side and upon the stove. A blaze was the result and some towels together with other combustible material, caught fire. The crew jumped in with buckets of water and soon had the flames extinguished. The results were not at all serious. Aside from the scorching of paint, overturning of some stewed potatoes and beefsteak, burning of the cook's hair to a slight extent and general soaking of the place with water, there was no damage.

Shortly after 1 p. m. the fire department was again called out, this time to the stables of Tin Wo on Liliha just above King street. As in the case of the first fire, the flames were extinguished before the arrival of the department.

A front room above the stables was the scene of the excitement. A native woman living there, who is very absent minded, placed a hot flat-iron on a bundle of old clothes in the corner of the room instead of in the usual place. The clothes burned and communicated the fire to a bundle of pulu near by. This in turn set fire to other material. Some one with presence of mind rushed in and threw the whole burning mass out upon the street. A little water settled the whole matter.

Mr. Ward L. Smith, of Fredericks-town, Mo., was troubled with chronic diarrhoea for over thirty years. He had become fully satisfied that it was only a question of a short time until he would have to give up. He had been treated by some of the best physicians in Europe and America but got no permanent relief. One day he picked up a newspaper and chanced to read an advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. He got a bottle of it, the first dose helped him and its continued use cured him. For sale by all druggists and dealers; Benson, Smith & Co., wholesale agents for Hawaiian Islands.
